

Control-Flow Graph for Determining Study Hours.

The following is a control-flow graph representation of the algorithm used for determining the number of study hours a member shall have.

The final outcome of the algorithm is represented by the circular nodes. This is where the loop breaks.

*All Study Hour reductions also require that the member has a cumulative GPA ≥ 2.75 and that he is not on social probation.

